Notice of Fee Increase on January 1, 2003

If a reply to a "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" is filed in the Office on or after January 1, 2003, then the amount due will be higher than that set forth in the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" since there will be an increase in fees effective on January 1, 2003. See Revision of Patent and Trademark Fees for Fiscal Year 2003; Final Rule, 67 Fed. Reg. 70847, 70849 (November 27, 2002).

The current fee schedule is accessible from: <http://www.uspto.gov/main/howtofees.htm>.

If the issue fee paid is the amount shown on the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due," but not the correct amount in view of the fee increase, a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee" will be mailed to applicant. In order to avoid processing delays associated with mailing of a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee," if the response to the Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) due form is to be filed on or after January 1, 2003 (or mailed with a certificate of mailing on or after January 1, 2003), the issue fee paid should be the fee that is required at the time the fee is paid. If the issue fee was previously paid, and the response to the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" includes a request to apply a previously-paid issue fee to the issue fee now due, then the difference between the issue fee amount at the time the response is filed and the previously paid issue fee should be paid. See Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, Section 1308.01 (Eighth Edition, August 2001).

Questions relating to issue and publication fee payments should be directed to the Customer Service Center of the Office of Patent Publication at (703) 305-8283.

Response to Arguments

Applicants' comments regarding "withdrawal" of the terminal disclaimer are not well taken. On[✓] a paper is filed in an application, it is not within the jurisdiction of the examiner to withdraw or expunge such document. Additionally, if the terminal disclaimer was not present in the application file, a double patenting rejection of some of the instant claims over, e.g. claims 5 and 6 of U.S. Patent 6,221,145 might be made of record.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record, either alone or in combination, fails to anticipate or render obvious the instantly claimed invention. The following discussion is for clarity only. The preponderance of the evidence on this record now supports the applicants' position that the claimed process involves producing a paint composition from a plurality of solutions, none of which comprises a paint composition by itself. The "empty" bucket of claim 52 is considered clearly implied by the overall disclosure of the intended invention. Applicants have furthermore clarified the distinction between the instantly claimed process and that employed to produce paint in a factory environment in arguments presented May 6, 2003. Finally, applicant have provided anecdotal and declaration evidence to attempt to establish a long-felt need for the instantly claimed invention. It is considered that the preponderance of the evidence on this record supports the patentability of the instant claims.

Art Unit: 1755

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
